

MULTICULTURAL ARC

Making Multicultural Australia: past, present and future

WHY THE MULTICULTURAL ARC?

Multicultural Australia is at another turning point, two generations out from its “invention” in 1973.

Social conflict is widespread around international events, showing up locally as hate speech, fear and high levels of anxiety.

While a majority of Australians think cultural diversity has been good for Australia, few know what multiculturalism seeks to achieve or how it thinks about those tasks.

What decisions now confront the Australian people in relation to the next generation?

MULTICULTURAL ARC IS DESIGNED TO EXPLORE THESE QUESTIONS AND PRESENT SOME OF THE POSSIBLE ANSWERS.
